English II Academic

Course Description

English II is a survey of world literature. Students enrolled in English II read, discuss, analyze, and write about both classical and contemporary world literature including novels, short stories, drama, prose, and poetry. Students continue to explore language for expressive, informational, explanatory, critical, argumentative, and literary purposes, although emphasis is placed on informational contexts in preparation for the North Carolina Writing Test. Students also concentrate on enlarging vocabulary, refining grammatical skills, honing technology skills, improving comprehension, developing study skills, and widening personal reading. Upon completion students take English III.

Prerequisites

Successful completion of English I
