English IV Academic

Course Description

English IV integrates all the language arts skills gained throughout students' education. Students enrolled in English IV continue to explore expressive, expository, argumentative, and literary texts with a focus on British literature, including how the literature of Great Britain has influenced the literature of the United States. English IV students also study the connections of themes, ideas, and movements in British literature. Emphasis is on argumentation by developing a position of advocacy through reading, writing, speaking, listening, and using media. There is a strong concentration on grammar, vocabulary development, and increased reading comprehension.

Prerequisites

Successful completion of English I, English II, and English III
