

Latin III Honors

Course Description

This course prepares students for Latin Literature AP and Vergil AP (Latin IV). It contains selections from Latin authors of the Golden Age period of Latin literature: Cicero, Catullus, Virgil, and Ovid and as such can be considered a Pre-Advanced Placement course.

Prerequisites

Prerequisites for the course are Latin I and II in which all aspects of Latin grammar have been grasped including all forms of the verb and noun, an expansive vocabulary, and various constructions involving verb and noun usage (indirect discourse, uses of the subjunctive, gerundive uses, ablative absolute, deponent verbs, sequence of tenses, etc.).
