

Medieval Studies

Course Description

This social studies course explores Medieval Europe and Asia from the days of Early Christianity until the dawn of the Renaissance. Students investigate Christianity, the rise of the Byzantine Empire, The Islamic World, and European Invasions and how these movements influenced medieval culture, politics, and economics. Students trace medieval political threads and how they influenced each other. The course makes frequent use of the rich resources about this period available as online, textual, and visual media. Within this textbook-independent course students work both individually and as members of groups to complete assignments and projects. Medieval Studies provides students an opportunity to explore both Eastern and Western cultures during an exciting period of history.
