

World History Honors

Course Description

World History is a survey course that gives students the opportunity to explore recurring themes of human experience common to civilizations around the globe from ancient to contemporary times. Students will examine the historical roots of significant events, ideas, and movements. They will broaden their historical perspectives as they explore ways societies have dealt with continuity and change as exemplified by issues such as war and peace, internal stability and strife, and the development of institutions. This course serves as a foundation for Civics and Economics.

Honors World History covers the material in greater complexity, novelty, and pacing. Honors World History is distinguished by a difference in the quality of the work expected, not merely an increase in quantity.
